Start of Block: Section 1: Introduction

Q1.1

We are a team of researchers at Dartmouth College, the University of Chicago, the University of Michigan, and the University of Rochester conducting research on political candidates. We are writing to invite your participation in a survey on preferences for different candidates in an election. It should take less than 10 minutes to complete this survey.

The information collected will be completely anonymous. No identifying information will be collected or retained with your survey responses. Your participation in this study is voluntary, and you are free to withdraw from the study at any time. However, any online interaction carries some risk of being accessed.

Q1.2 Please select one of the following options. If you choose not to participate, the survey will end immediately.

- I agree to participate (1)
- I do not agree to participate (2)

Q3.1 This study concerns politics and voters' preferences for different types of political candidates. On the next ten screens, we will provide you with several pieces of information about people who might run in an upcoming election. For each pair of people, please indicate which of the two candidates you would personally support. This exercise is purely hypothetical. Even if you aren't entirely sure, please indicate which of the two you prefer.
